A Message from the Board

Fred Lehmann, Sandi Reber Leeman and son Collin, Suzie and Ruedi Lusti, Armin Drier Margot Linback, Karen and Tony Odermatt, Debbie Egger Morris and her husband John Morris, Steve Egger, Glenda and Daniel Vanetti, Tina Duenez and her father Emil Lehmann

The Board of Directors of the San Diego County Swiss Club would like to welcome you to our 66th Annual Schwingfest. It is with much pride that we are able to continue this wonderful tradition. We are forever grateful to our previous generations for having the forethought and ability to provide such a lovely setting. Many things have changed but the enthusiasm and traditions for Schwingen remain constant. We are so glad to have you here with us today.

Finally, we would like to welcome the Schwingers who come to showcase their skills and strengths in the sawdust ring. Schwingen exemplifies important values: Each match begins and ends with a handshake and the rules dictate that the winner must always brush the sawdust from the losers back.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, our families and our club members,, we would like to thank you for attending and supporting the San Diego County Swiss Club.

A Message from the President of the West Coast
Swiss Wrestling Association
Joe Albert Ming

Welcome to one of the real gems of Swiss Festivals on the West Coast...the San Diego Schwingfest. The tradition thrives and lives on in San Diego for it's 67th Annual Schwingfest. The San Diego Swiss Club highlights many of the cultural gifts Swiss-Americans have to offer. The language, the pastries, the music, the chocolate, the wrestling, the party, the fun dance, all the friends of Swiss, the ocean nearby and of course the spectacular weather make San Diego an amazing venue to experience the Swiss culture shared by Swiss-Americans.

With record crowds, bigger dances and more wrestlers wanting to compete in 2014, we are very excited about the growth of our events on the West Coast for 2015 and beyond. You are doing your part as parents, family and friends by bringing your children and friends to these events to enjoy as we did as young children. Where else can you watch an ancient, high-flying sport outside, enjoy cold beverages in the sun and go dance the night away with friends and family afterward? Chicken dance anybody? No childhood experience can replace a cultural experience and the connectivity a child has with his or her roots. Especially an experience with a bunch of fun Swiss-Americans. Hey, our relatives in Switzerland were just voted "2015's Happiest People on Earth".

Finally, thank you to all the people that have donating their time for the Swiss-American culture a priority. There are simply too many to list and you are not recognized nearly as much as you should be. But rest assured, the great memories of the Swiss events you help organize exist because of you and your efforts. Thank you, you are appreciated!

If you came as a stranger to San Diego's Swiss Festival, you will most definitely leave as a friend. Thank you and have a wonderful day with the Swiss.

The results for the 2015 Ripon Spring Schwingfest are in!! The top ten leader board in the 2015 "King of the Pit" $5,000 Point Series definitely shifted after Ripon Spring. Each wrestler must wrestle at either the San Diego or Imperial Valley Schwingfest to qualify for "King of the Pit" $5,000 purse. Big movers this week up in the standings were Jakob Schallberger & Matthew Gallego. Check out the changes in "King of the Pit" standings and Ripon results below. "King of the Pit" takes the best 5 results of all WCSWA schwingfests (Truckee, San Diego, Imperial Valley, Ripon & Newark). This means that though the top three have wrestled in more than the other wrestlers, they will only get to keep their top five placing points....these leaders will really move around by the end of the season.

1st	Frank Kaech (3)	360 Points
2nd	Clint Schallberger (3)	270 Points
3rd	Steven Widmer (3)	230 Points
4th	Andrew Betschart (2)	220 Points
5th	Logan Schallberger (2)	180 Points
6th	Jakob Schallberger (2)	170 Points
8th	Stefan Granado (2)	140 Points
9th	Dominic Reichmuth (1)	100 Points
10th	Matthew Gallego (2)	90 Points

Number in parenthesis () denotes number of schwingfests wrestler has wrestled in 2015.

Each wrestler must wrestle at either the San Diego or Imperial Valley Schwingfest to qualify for "King of the Pit" $5,000 purse.

San Diego County Swiss Club History

The San Diego County Swiss Club officially formed as a group in 1939. The Club's original Board of Directors were:

President	Paul Aeschliman
Vice President	Robert Egger, Sr.
Treasurer	Theodore Blatter
Recording Secretary	Walter Suter
Corresponding Secretary	Leo Arnold
Director	John Kastlunger
Director	John Christen

Although they are no longer with us, their spirit lives on today. It is in their descendants and the many Swiss who have immigrated to this country to pass Swiss tradition and heritage to future generations.

The site for the very first Schwingfest, held in 1949, was Eggers' Park. In 1953, the club purchased from Robert Egger, Sr., the land that our park currently sits upon. In 1957, pulling resources together, the club built a great hall

Due to the expansion of the freeway, it was necessary to build a new hall. The beautiful hall used today was built in 1970. Today, after six decades of club activities, the tradition lives on with many thanks and fond memories of our founding fathers.

Swiss Motto:

"Einer Fur Alle und Alle Fur Einer"

The History of the Schwingfest

Swiss style wrestling (Schwingen) is one of the oldest known sports. Around A.D. 1300, cow herders in the Alps started the sport. They wore bells around their waists, and handkerchiefs around their knees. There have been Schwingfest (Swiss style wrestling matches) in Switzerland for hundreds of years, testing the strength and agility of the mountain farmers. Winners were determined to be the strongest of the group.

Soon after the first Swiss Style Wrestling instruction book was published in 1864, the Turners (Gymnasts) of the Swiss flat lands began to participate in the sport. These tough and limber wrestlers from the Gymnastic clubs soon became as good as the Senne (Farmers).

Historically Schwingfests are held today in locations such as Napf, Luedern, Rigi and Bruenig

The Schwinger

Today, we can recognize the Senne by their light blue mild shirt and dark grey trousers and the Turners by their dress of all white.

Besides the proper color of dress, a Schwinger (wrestler) needs a pair of short breeches made of heavy canvas call Schwinghosen. The object is to pick up your opponent by his breeches and toss him with a swing onto his back in a sawdust circle.

The high point of every Schwinger's career is to participate in the Federal Schwing Und Alper festival, which is held every three or four years.

The Game

The sport is organized by matching wrestlers according weight and size. Besides strength and agility as Schwinger needs knowledge of as many grips and tosses as possible. Points are added together for re-matching, and to determine the winners.

At the beginning of a match, each Schwinger will grasp his right hand on the belt and his left hand on the cuff of his opponent's shorts. Once the referee has determined that both wrestlers are in proper position, he announces "Gut" or "Wrestle" and the wrestling will begin.

A tournament consists of six matches lasting up to five minutes each. The object is to pin the opponent's shoulder blades to the ground while maintaining a grip on this belt or pants. An instant win with a clean pickup and flat pin scores 10.0 points. The winner of the match traditionally dusts off his opponent's backside, a sign of good sportsmanship.

The tournament winner is the one who has his backside dusted off least often. He is rewarded with a crown of laurel leaves, title of Schwingerkonig (King of the Swiss Schwing) and a kiss from a Kranzmeiteli (Crown Girl).
